

DESCRIPTION:

The Nightscaping® Planter Topper was inspired by the numerous types of planters that are found in city centers and various other municipal settings that have strong architectural elements but precious little garden space. The strong pops of color from annual floral displays and the strong plant forms that punctuate these city spaces, soften the hard angles found in these thriving metropolises and put us back in touch with nature. The Planter topper is perfectly matched with any of Nightscaping's medium height Estate bollards and is ideally suited for areas around patios, decks and even garden spaces that need a touch of illumination and drama from color in an artistic form.
